Hostilities have been resolved at R27
Notification to all Special Duty Section 6 Members patrolling the vicinity
Of the 6 member Raptor team, 4 suffered moderate damage, 2 heavy damage In all cases, their cores were recovered intact
All members of the criminal group aiming for the Raptors have been secured.
They are currently being urgently transported to the Caledfwlch Service Center.

Onsite members are to be especially cautious
The Huckebein member identified as Cypha has escaped
...So they left out the pursuit orders, huh?
Right!
P Team and Commander Signum please continue with the culprit escort mission

It's appropriate, isn't it? All the front line members that can move are gathered up together
Even for gladiators, scrambling around at full throttle like that, they're at their limits.
I'm sure they have a little left in their batteries, though.
At ease, Commander Signum
Our division's aces arrived moments ago
Those two, huh?
Nice timing~!
Understood. I'll join up with F Team then.
I'll leave the rest to them.

Right. Stars 1 and Riot 1 will be taking over supervision of the scene.

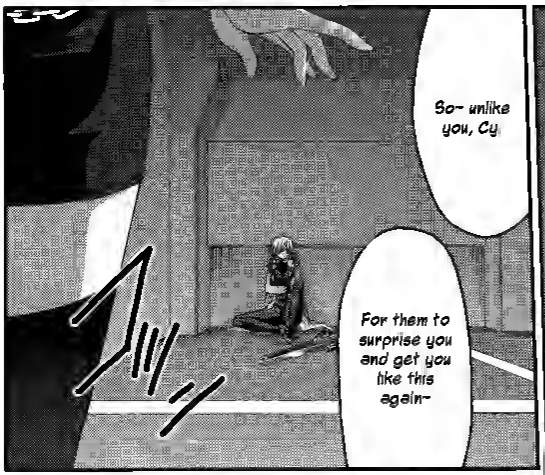
District 36 Underground Parking Garage



So~ unlike you, Cy.
For them to surprise you and get you like this again~

Tch...

Couldn't be helped. That swordswoman is strong.

Don't gimme that. If you went all out, she wouldn't've gotten you, right~?

While I had this thing activated, it would've come to a point where I couldn't bring it back... In that manner, pulling out armor there would've been an even greater risk.
If you used these wierd weapons, you wouldn't even have to have armor, wouldja?
Huckebein Family "Fortune Teller"
Sonica Lilian
Is that because that little Zero, who you haven't figured out is an enemy or ally yet, was there?
That might've had something to do with it too.

He's a good kid... Still wet behind the ears, though.
Curren and Vey aside, everyone seems to be buying into this Zero boy, huh?

Right, I was meaning to ask you.

What happened to the time I had you promise to be nearby when you were needed?
Ahahaha~ I was so busy with my main business that it just kinda slipped my mind~

There are around two pretty simple requests we could take care of nearby.
Or would you rather take in some light "work"?
Guess you're right...
Well, it'll be a bit before we can go back home, right?
Wanna drop by a hotel and grab a bite?
'Kay, let's eat first then.
Let's let them settle down for now. Everyone else is busy at the moment anyways.
It's a pretty world changing incident, so it's gotta be worth doing.
Man, but even for us Huckebein, this case is reminiscent of our first big operation.

I suppose.
At the very least, we won't be bored for awhile.
Hey, but you know! You were all proud and preachy around that boy
It's great that you can be so relaxed around that kid without embarassing yourself, huh~?
You're looking a bit too far ahead, aren't you?

Oi. There's no need for you to do such pointless things.
Don't underestimate a Carrier's regenerative power. My wounds have already healed
I know that. But if we don't wipe away the filth, won't it get you down?

You'll feel bad if you don't keep yourself pretty, right?
AUGH
HEY, STO-STO..!

WAAAH! QUIT IT~!
I'm almost done. Just deal with it!

Hm~ Now that I look at you up close like this, you're still a kid, huh, Zero?
Really?
Now that you mention it, you look like you're younger than I am..
Nfufu. Miss Lolo's age is a se~cret.
By the way, your guys' head is sleeping really well, huh?
Well, that'll be that, then.
Once we investigate you guys I'm sure I'll find out..

THAT'S 'CAUSE OUR HEAD'S A DUMBASS.
IF I wasn't indebted to him, I would've killed him around six times by now
Well, he's a big shot. And Miss Lolo likes him.
It's that dumbass head's fault we're in this mess.
Seriously, just die. Both the head and that little buzzsaw hatchling.
What was that? I'll kill you, you stupid sniper.

Besides, hasn't your investigation already started?
If we started explaining things now, it'd be an illegal inquiry, wouldn't it?
She blew me off!
I wish you'd think of it as idle chit chat for now.
Until just awhile ago, if you had asked me, I was on you guys' side
Actually me too!
Ooh. You two have such cute faces, but you used to be delinquents?
わっ
I don't know if you'd call us delinquents, or what, but
A lot of stuff happened"

Tch...! These guys are such a nuisance! And that gun's troublesome too.
We screwed up the request from Vandein. And if we let that slip, they'll have us erased on the spot.
I'm sure, since it's this dumbass, that he has some kind of solution for this, but...
HOW MUCH LONGER'RE YOU GONNA SLEEP, YOU USELESS TWIT!
BWAGH!
Pretty lively back there, huh?
You wouldn't think we're in the middle of escorting criminals.

Oh well, it's allowed us to show those kids to the maritime prison.
If we can link them to the Vandein Corporation in the interrogation, then we can finally make some progress on this incident.

Once the escort's over, you'll be going back to HQ, won't you Commander Signum?
Yes. I'll be leaving them under the supervision of you three.
Yes!
As long as that flame swordsman isn't here...!
With my bullets, I can get by this naive boy and whitey.
And Quinn's blade should be able to get through that explosive using black hair
We may've screwed up the lifting job, but we can still escape!
Will the three of us be okay guarding the four of them?
Not an issue

Our commanding officer has already taken up position there.

THE MAIN OFFICE'S SPECIAL FIELD AGENT YAGAMI HAYATE!
Commander Yagami Hayate is our commanding officer
Is Commander Yagami a famous person?
THAT'S YOUR GUYS' COMMANDING OFFICER!?
The Living Lost Logia... Who once Felled the "Saint's Cradle" The Administration Bureau's prized war asset!
Rather, I'm amazed that you guys are completely in the dark about this. Right, Quinn?
I don't know how it's possible, but yeah
We've got no luck... No luck at all
I do have one correction to make to that statement
It wasn't our master's power that brought down the Cradle, like you said.

It was the power of the other two on our team that shot it down, afterall.
And they're aerial mages that can also fight on par with me

It would be best if you abandoned all thoughts of resisting or escape.

SHUT UP, OCTOPUS BRAIN! I WASN'T TALKIN' TO YOU!
You really thought you could escape?

We're completely backed into a wall here...
...It's over...

Hey, don't worry so much, Mariya.
!?
The Grendel Family's Dream Road
is still in the middle of its first chapter.

So there was no attack from the masterminds, huh?
They said they'll be starting the individual interrogations now
The Grendel Family has been sucessfully interred at the detention facility.
Right...
I highly doubt those delinquents will be able to keep their mouths shut. On the contrary, they probably didn't want to hand them over to us.
Couldn't that be Vandein too? Say they're doing infection experiments...
Right?
I don't think we're wrong about Vandein being the supplier for their arms and raw materials. But the means of those kids' infection concerns me too.

To say those were Vandein's actions... To spread doubt, they selected underdeveloped areas at random.
The odds of an ordinary person being compatible with the Eclipse is exceedingly low.
And once a town became a site for experimentation, there was rarely a single survivor.
Then I'm sure we'll understand what's really going on.
In any event, if we can get testimony from those kids, then we can get a search warrant issued for Vandein's Eighth Planning Office.
Pretty much none, huh?
Yet, what're the odds that all of those few survivors would end up in one gang or mafia group by chance...?

We won't tell you anything about our employer. They'll kill us if we say anything.
You guys're fishing, huh? A truth like that isn't cool at all.
Know what I'm sayin'?
You're mistaken, kiddo.
We've got a self-destruct unit attached. There's a tiny little bomb implanted inside our heads.
...WE'RE IN THE MIDDLE OF AN INTERROGATION. KEEP BOTH HANDS ABOVE THE TABLE!
They said they'd kill you? If so, this is a secure facility.

Meh, it was the choker on the contract. If we "Confess to any details of our employer"...
Our brains splatter across the walls with a "Bang!"
That said, Zero Boy.
How about we cut a deal?
How about I cough up the details on the ones pulling our strings...
And in exchange, you let my family go.
You octopus! Even now, I'm still the family's head, ain't I!?
YOU WANT TO EXCHANGE THEM FOR YOUR LIFE? YOU'RE NOT THAT KIND OF CHARACTER!

It'll be good since Mariya's top for being the next head. With her, she'll do a good job.
Do whatever you want. I can't approve of that.
Yeah, I want that confession about the mastermind even just a little bit sooner, but now I have to save you too.
Yeah, I guess it would be kind of troublesome if you had to put that the culprit died in interrogation on your report.
No, you're wrong.

I'm sure you could overlook someone like me dying...
It just took that time stopping Cypha from killing Quinn to notice it again
It's just that I can't allow someone to die right in front of my eyes.
No, you're wrong. I'd hate to be "only overlooked" myself.
That's good, Thoma
Maybe it's because my sister's in the rescue squad... Whenever there's something I don't know, I tend to look to her influence

I can't overlook you and your family's criminal records... But I'm not about to pass the death sentence on you for it.
Kurt Grendel.
A good speech fitting one of Section 6's forwards.
Plus, you won't die if all you do is confess .. am I wrong?
.....
How about we do this deal: If you give your testimony...
The Grendel Family will be placed in Special Duty Section 6's custody, and we'll also administer medical treatment for halting the advancement of your EC symptoms
I'm one of the ones taking it now! Our Dr. Shamal is amazing!

I really hope you won't refuse. She may not look it, but our commanding officer is a pretty spoiled child, you know?
And if I refuse?
..The commanding officer is fine. The subordinates are fine. Somehow you guys just have this crazy vibe goin', ya know?
Bah, whatever. I didn't want to keep this on my chest to begin with anyway.
Ya listening? Our employer is...
Ah! Hold your horses, there! Earlier I had the medical team...

UGOAAAH!! IT HURTS! IT #2(?4IN' HURTS!
ARE YOU ALL RIGHT, KURT?
It hurts!!
I don't have enough blood... Bring some... raw liver...
It seems the bomb was originally placed within their inner craniums.
Through a bit of sleight of hand, they'd been moved to the lining in their necks. In all of them
With this, looks like we're barely within the safe zone.
Looking at a living organism, if you want to take 'em out, you blow 'em up so their heads are separated from their bodies.

With this, we're traitors to Vandein.
It'll be to our benefit if they think we're dead.
Kurt, Tell me what you said one more time, clearly.
Who was the one who changed all of you into infected and hired you for this job ..?
OK. You recordin' this time?
The Managing Director of the Vandein Corporation's Eighth Planning Office, Hades Vandein is our employer...
And the one who prepared us for being EC Carriers. He's the ringleader behind it all.
